X7 at Sherlock's

To say X7 is a talented group is an understatement. I say this because of how the band promotes and obviously their music. What other band in Erie makes a promotional video about their next gig? You can thank guitarist/lead vocalist/media producer Mike Kraus. Mike is a jack of all trades in music and art. His combination of the two creates a strong branded band with a great sound to back it up.

Hearing bands live always seem to sound different than audio tracks, but not X7. The real deal is what you get. It's a must to see these guys live, but you need to check out their videos too. Illustrating the words and song into a video is something that can be difficult, but they have it down to a T.

I've seen some videos of bands, but the quality doesn't do the song justice. Here for X7, the song and the video make for an engaging experience that will having watching another video, listening to another song, or browsing through their website. I am telling you this because this is what it has done to me!

X7 is a definite show to go catch, and if you can't see them, check out their website and hear some track and watch their videos. But all good things must come to an end because as they rocked it out, the time had come to end their show.
